Towel preparation procedure for the espresso machines are different from standard towel bucket procedures today. It is acceptable to reuse one towel in a small pail for wiping down steam wands only. Use this towel and pail only for cleaning steam wands throughout the day.

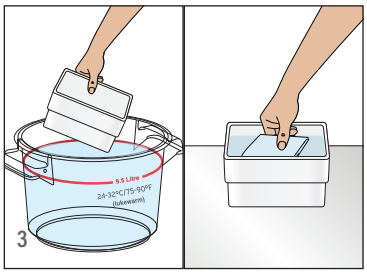

KAY-5 PREPARATION - FOR TOWEL PAILS

- Dissolve 1 packet of KAY-5 Sanitizer/Cleaner in 2.5 gal. (9.5 L) of lukewarm (75-90°F) water in the clean towel bucket
- Mix thoroughly in Clean Towel Bucket until dissolved

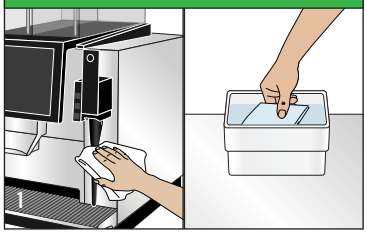

- Test concentration of Sanitizer Solution; concentration of freshly prepared KAY-5 Sanitizer Solution should be 100 ppm

- Dip pail into bucket of KAY-5 Solution to fill
- Place 1 clean sanitizer-soaked towel into pail of KAY-5 Solution; this towel pail is used to wipe down steam wand after each drink

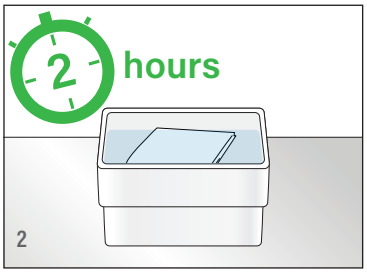

NOTE: Set aside bucket of Sanitizer Solution with lid; keep using it throughout day to refill pail for espresso machine until bucket is empty or Sanitizer Solution drops below 50ppm

AFTER EACH DRINK

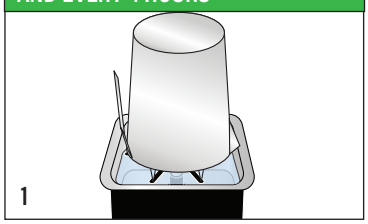

- Wipe steam wand with a clean, sanitizer-soaked towel after each drink
- Place towel back in pail
- Exhaust steam wand

CAUTION: Steam wand may be hot

- Replace KAY-5 Solution and towel in pail every 2 hours or when Solution tests below 50ppm

MILK PITCHER - AFTER EACH USE AND EVERY 4 HOURS

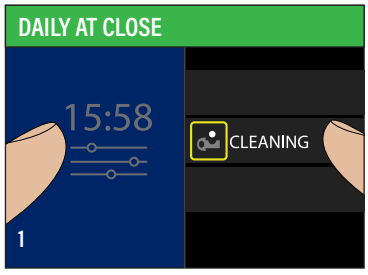

- Rinse out milk pitcher with water at rinse station after each use

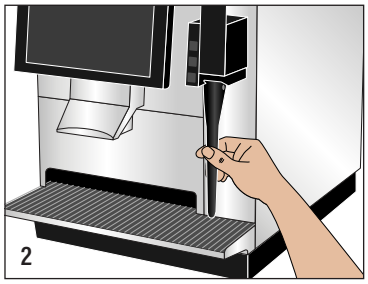

- Every 4 hours; wash, rinse and sanitize milk pitcher at 3-compartment sink or warewash machine
- Allow to air dry

DAILY AT CLOSE

- Execute cleaning cycle on the espresso machine display screen
- Follow on-screen prompts until cleaning is complete

- Wash, rinse and sanitize steam wand per manufacturer's recommendations

NOTE: Some steam wands are removed for cleaning and others are cleaned in place

- Allow to air dry
